

The 19th Trilateral East Asian Seminar on the United Nations System

Multilateralism in East Asia and the United Nations

NOVEMBER 7-9, 2019

Conference Hall(B3), The Korea Foundation for Advanced Studies

Hosted by

Korea Academic Council on the United Nations System (KACUNS)

Co-hosted by

Chey Institute for Advanced Studies (CIAS)

In collaboration with

UN Association of China (UNA-China)
Japan Association for United Nations Studies (JAUNS)
Academic Council on the United Nations System (ACUNS)

Co-Sponsored by

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Korea (MOFA)
United Nations Association of the Republic of Korea (UNA-ROK)

Time	Content
November 7, Thursday
	Arrival of delegates Check-in at Hotel
15:00-18:30	SK T.um Tour (16:00-17:20) * Bus will depart from the Shilla Stay at 15:00 and Mercure Ambassador at 15:05
Opening and Welcoming Dinner Reception (Restaurant Chaegeundam)
18:30-	Opening and Welcoming Remarks KWEON Ki-hwan , Director-General for International Organizations, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Korea (MOFA) WANG Ying , Deputy Director-General, United Nations Association of China (UNA-China) SHINYO Takahiro , President of Japan Association for United Nations Studies (JAUNS) SOH Changrok , President of Korea Academic Council on the United Nations System (KACUNS)
19:00-	dinner
November 8, Friday (Conference Hall, KFAS)
9:15-9:30	Opening Remark Han, Sung-Joo , Chairman of the Board, KACUNS
Session I: Digital Transformation and the Future of United Nations System
1-1) Entering the Era of the Digital Revolution: Past, Present, and Future
9:30-10:50	Moderator (Korea) In-kook Park, President of the Chey Institute for Advanced Studies Presenters 1. China Mr. XUE Lei, Assistant Research Fellow, Institute for World Economy Studies, Shanghai Institutes for International Studies (IWES, SIIS) “United Nations in the Era of Digital Transformation and Digital Divide” 2. Japan Professor Yasushi Katsuma, Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University “Data Governance Principles for Achieving Universal Health Coverage” 3. Korea Professor Byoung Won Min, Department of Political Science and International Relations, Ewha Woman’s University “Taking Technology Seriously: Posthuman Governance Beyond Global Minilateralism” Discussants 1. China Ms. SUN Jingying, Assistant Research Fellow, Institute of World Economics and Politics, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (IWEPP, CASS) 2. Japan Professor Mariko Shoji, Keiai University, Director for Academic Exchange and Cooperation, JAUNS 3. Korea Dr. Youcheer Kim, Research Professor, Korea University
10:50-11:00	Group Photo
11:00-11:20	Coffee Break

1-2) New Technologies in Global Governance and the UN’s Response
11:20-12:40	Moderator (China) Ms. TENG Chen, Senior Official, United Nations Association of China (UNA-China) Presenters 1. Japan Mr. Shinichi Kushima, Former UN staff member “Digital Transformation and the United Nations” 2. Korea Professor Changrok Soh, President of Korea Academic Council on the United Nations System (KACUNS) “Taking Challenges of the UN in Emerging Technology” 3. China Ms. SUN Jingying, Assistant Research Fellow, IWEPP, CASS “Digital Economy and Its Implications for East Asia and UN system” Discussants 1. Japan Professor Tadanori Inomata, Advisor for Global Relations, Office for Global Relations of Nagasaki University 2. Korea Ms. Jiwon Ahn, Second Secretary, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Korea (MOFA) 3. China Mr. XUE Lei, Assistant Research Fellow, IWES, SIIS
12:40-14:00	Lunch (18 th floor)
Session II: Peace and Security
II-1) Peacebuilding on the Korean Peninsula
14:00-15:20	Moderator (Japan) Dr. Sukehiro Hasegawa, Executive Director for Academic Exchange, United Nations Association of Japan Presenters 1. Korea Professor Sung Chul Jung, Department of Political Science and Diplomacy, Myongji University “North Korea’s Nuclear Weapons and US-DPRK Talks” 2. China Ms. LI Dongyan, Senior Research Fellow, Institute of World Economics and Politics, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (IWEPP, CASS) “Building a Cooperative Security Mechanism and Sustaining Peace on the Korean Peninsula” 3. Japan Mr. Takamitsu Hadano, Researcher, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Tsukuba “Regional Security and Peacebuilding in Northeast Asia” Discussants 1. Korea Professor Hyun Jin Choi, Department of Politics and International Relations, Kyunghee University 2. China Ms. ZHANG Weiwei, Associate Research Fellow, Department for Asia-Pacific Studies, China Institute of International Studies (DAPS, CIIS) 3. Japan Professor Takahiro Shinyo, President of Japan Association for UN Studies
15:20-15:40	Coffee Break

II-2) Security Cooperation in East Asia
15:40-17:00	Moderator (Korea) Professor Heung-Soon Park, Graduate School of International Relations, Sun Moon University Presenters China Ms. ZHANG Weiwei, Associate Research Fellow, DAPS, CIIS “Security Challenges in East Asia and the Prospects of China-Japan-Korea Cooperation” Japan Dr. Ai Kihara-Hunt, University of Tokyo “Cooperation in Policing and the Rule of Law at the United Nations System” Korea Professor Shin-wha Lee, Department of Political Science and International Relations, Korea University “Regional Security Stakes and the Crisis of Multilateralsim in East Asia” Discussants China Ms. Li Dongyan, Senior Research Fellow, IWEP, CASS Japan Dr. Aigul Kulnazarova, Professor of International Relations and International Law, School of Global Studies, Tama University Korea Dr. Eunsook Chung, Senior Research Fellow, the Sejong Institute
17:00-	Break
18:00-	Dinner Reception (Shilla Stay, 3 rd floor)
November 9, Saturday (Conference Hall, KFAS)
Session III: Economic and Cultural Development
III-1) Local Implementations of SDGs
9:30-10:50	Moderator (China) Ms. WANG Ying, Deputy Director-General of United Nations Association of China (UNA-China) Presenters Japan Mr. Hiroshige Fujii, School of International Studies, Utsunomiya University “A Localized Approach to Implementing the SDGs through Collaborative Efforts between University and Municipality: A Case Study of Utsunomiya, Tochigi Prefecture” Korea Professor Youngwan Kim, Division of Language and Diplomacy, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies “The More Chinese Aid Projects in Africa are, The Less Friendly African People are: Evidence from Individual-level and Project-level Geocoded Data” China Ms. HUA Ruoyun, Acting Director, Division of Development Experience, Center for International Knowledge on Development (DDE, CIKD) “China Contributes Proactively to Implementing the 2030 Agenda” Discussants Japan Professor Jun Kukita, Graduate Course on UN and Foreign Affairs Studies, Kwansei Gakuin University Korea Professor Chungshik Moon, Department of Political Science and International Relations, Chung-Ang University China Ms. SONG Yi, Associate Dean, School of International Journalism and Communication, Beijing Foreign Studies University (SIJC, BFSU)
10:50-11:10	Coffee Break

III-2) Cultural Exchanges and Cooperation in East Asia
11:10-12:30	Moderator (Japan) Professor Keiko Karube, Momoyama Gakuin University Presenters Korea Dr. Chung Utak, Policy Advisor for Global Citizenship Education, Seoul Metropolitan Office of Education “How to Build Better Relationship among China, Japan and Korea: the Role of Education and Culture” China Ms. SONG Yi, Associate Dean, School of International Journalism and Communication, Beijing Foreign Studies University (SIJC, BFSU) “Developing International Journalism Talent Through Cross-culture Educational Collaboration: A Case Study of Beijing-Based IMMJ MA Program” Japan Professor Masataka Tamai, Tohoku University of Community Service and Science “Cultural CSBM and North East Asia – From the Viewpoint of the CSCE Experiences” Discussants Korea Professor Buhm-Suk Baek, Kyung Hee College of International Studies China Ms. HUA Ruoyun, Division of Development Experience, Center for International Knowledge on Development (DDE, CIKD) Japan Professor Kazuo Takahashi, The Library of Alexandria, Former Professor of International Christian University
Closing Session
12:30-13:00	Dialogue with ACUNS
13:00-13:15	Closing Session Remarks by leaders of KACUNS, CANUNS and JAUNS
13:15-14:30	Lunch (18 th floor)
14:30-	Departure of delegates

Ahn, Jiwon joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 2006 and served in the Human Rights and Social Affairs Division of the International Organization Bureau, the Policy Analysis Division of the Strategy Bureau, and the Public Diplomacy on Policy Division of the Public Diplomacy and Cultural Affairs Bureau. She is working in the Human Rights and Social Affairs Division of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

BAEK, Buhm-Suk is Assistant Professor at Kyung-Hee University, College of International Studies in Korea. He received a LL.B. from Seoul National University, and LL.M. and J.S.D. in public international law from Cornell Law School. Previously, he was a Research Fellow at Asan Institute for Policy Studies of Korea in 2012- 2013 as well as a Visiting Research Fellow at Georgetown University Law Center in the 2011 - 2012 academic years. His research focuses on international human rights law, transitional justice, law and development and third world approaches to international law. His recent publications include “NHRIs, RHRIs, and Human Rights NGOs,” Florida Journal of International Law, “The Medium Foreseeing the Future,” Socio-Legal Review, and “Mere Ritual or Gradual Change” Northwestern Interdisciplinary Law Review. In Oct. 2015, with Ruti Teitel, he also published a book, TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE IN POST-UNIFICATION KOREA by Palgrave McMillan.

Choi, Hyun Jin, PhD, is an assistant professor in the department of political science at Kyung Hee University in Seoul, Republic of Korea. Professor Choi’s research interests fall within the field of civil war, political violence, Sub-Saharan Africa, and political methodology. He received his PhD degree from Michigan State University, MA from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University, and BA from Kyung Hee University. Prior to joining Kyung Hee University, Professor Choi was a Postdoctoral Research Fellow of the European Research Council at the University of Sussex, England, and Trinity College Dublin, Ireland. His articles have been published in numerous refereed journals, including Politics and Religion, International Interactions, Terrorism and Political Violence, Global Environmental Change, International Studies Quarterly, Comparative Politics, Korean Journal of International Studies, and Journal of Conflict Resolution.

Chung, Eunsook is a graduate from the Korea University, Seoul (B.A. & M.A in Political Science) and Ohio State University, Columbus, U.S.A (Ph.D in Political Science). Dr. Chung joined the Sejong Institute in 1992 and has been working on international organizations and multilateral security issues. She has published numerous books and articles including a book entitled Changing International Order and the UN Peace and Security Governance (Sunin, 2019) and articles including “the Impact of the US Withdrawal from the JCPOA”(2018) and “the UN Peacekeeping Participation: China, Japan, South Korea” (2016). She was a member of the board of directors for the ACUNS (The Academic Council on the UN System) for three years 2015-2018 and served numerous positions at the Sejong Institute, including Vice President. She was a visiting fellow of Finnish Institute for International Affairs (FIIA) and Austrian Institute for International Affairs (OIIP), visiting scholar, Hoover Institution at Stanford University, and guest scholar of Peace Research Institute Frankfurt (PRIF). She is currently serving as a member of the advisory committees for Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Unification, as well as the ROK Navy.

Chung, Utak is currently the Policy Advisor for Global Citizenship Education to the Seoul Metropolitan Office of Education and the Professor for Special Affairs of the Korea National University of Welfare. He teaches Global Citizenship Education at Kyung Hee University and Sogang University. In addition, he teaches International Education at Seoul National University. Dr. Utak CHUNG was the Director of the Asia-Pacific Centre of Education for International Understanding (APCEIU), a UNESCO Category 2 Centre based in Seoul, the Republic of Korea from 2012 to March 2019. Prior to being inaugurated as APCEIU’s Director, Dr. Chung served as Assistant Secretary General and Director of Strategic Programs Divisions at the Korean National Commission for UNESCO, where he started his professional career in 1982. Additionally, he was the Associate Expert for the International Commission on Education for the Twenty First Century of UNESCO Headquarters from 1993 to 1995, and served as a Visiting Scholar at Graduate School of International Relations and Pacific Studies, University of California, San Diego from 2000 to 2002. Dr. Chung’s teaching career also includes his work as Adjunct Professor at Graduate Schools of International Studies at Sogang University (2002-2012) and Sookmyung Women’s University (2009-2012) in Seoul, the Republic of Korea. His academic focus is on Official Development Assistance (ODA), International Organizations and Global Citizenship Education. He holds Ph.D and M.A. in Political Science from Sogang University, the Republic of Korea.

Han, Sung-Joo is Professor Emeritus of Korea University and former Foreign Minister of Korea. He is known for his role as the Foreign Minister in resolving the North Korean nuclear conflict in 1993-4. He also served as Chairman of the East Asian Vision Group (1998-2000), UN Secretary-General’s Special Representative for Cyprus (1996-97), a member of the UN Inquiry Commission on the 1994 Rwanda Genocide (1999). After the second North Korean nuclear crisis, Han was appointed the Korean Ambassador to the United States (2003-2005). He was the acting president of Korea University from 2007 to 2008. Han was born in Seoul, Korea in 1940. He earned his Ph.D. in Political Science at University of California, Berkeley.

Jung, Sung Chul is Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science and Diplomacy at Myongji University, South Korea. He teaches and studies international relations, foreign policy analysis, and East Asian politics. Previously he was Research Fellow at Korea Institute for National Unification. His papers appeared in academic journals, including Armed Forces & Society, International Relations of the Asia-Pacific, International Studies Quarterly, Journal of Peace Research, Korean Political Science Review, and Pacific Focus.

Kim, Youcheer is a Research Professor at the Graduate School of International Studies, Korea University. He received a Ph.D. in political science from the State University of New York at Albany, in December 2016. Prior to joining the SSK human rights forum at Korea University, he worked at Korea National Diplomatic Academy (KNDA) and Yonsei University. His research areas cover the voting-pattern of states at the UN General Assembly and Security Council, the intersection of climate change and human rights issues, and the interdisciplinary theories of international law and international relations. He published more than ten articles in peer-reviewed academic journals.

Kim, Youngwan, Ph.D. is Associate Professor at the Division of Language and Diplomacy, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies. He went to Yonsei University for his B.A. in political science and got M.A. in international development from the University of California San Diego. After receiving his PhD in political science from the University of Iowa in 2011, he worked as a lecturer in the Department of Political Science at Iowa State University for two years and then as a research professor at Korea University before taking his current position. His research interests include foreign aid, NGOs, international development cooperation, international organizations, and international law. He also has work experience in the field of international development cooperation with several international organizations such as UNICEF, International Republican Institute, Humanasia and so on. In addition, he conducted a variety of research and field projects with KOICA, MOFA, and MOU. With co-authored book, International Organizations, his representative works has been published in several journals like World Development, Development and Change, Foreign Policy Analysis, Disasters, etc.

Kweon, Ki-Hwan is the Director General of International Organization Bureau of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Korea. He was a Deputy Consul-General, Koran Consulate General in New York, U.S.A, from 2015-2018. He holds B.A. in International Relations, Seoul National University, and M.A. in Political Science, Boston College, Massachusetts, U.S.A.

Lee, Shin-wha is Professor of Department of Political Science and International Relations, Korea University (2003-now), Research committee chair of Seoul Forum for International Affairs(2014-), Member of Committee on Public Diplomacy, Korea(2017-), International advisory member of Asia-Pacific Center for Responsibility to Protect(2008-) and Member of Trilateral Commission(2003-). Her previous positions include Post-doc fellow at Harvard University’s Center for International Affairs(CFIA)(1994-97), Research associate at the World Bank(1992-93), Special advisor to UNSG Kofi Annan’s Rwandan Independent Inquiry(1999-2000), Chair’s advisor of East Asian Vision Group(EAVG)(2000-01), Visiting scholar at Princeton University’s East Asian Program(2004), Full-time visiting professor at School of International and Public Affairs(SIPA), Columbia University(2009-10), Executive committee member of Academic Council on the UN Studies(ACUNS)(2008-10), International board member of GR:EEN, Europe(2011-14), Vice President for international affairs at Korea University(2012), Visiting scholar at MIT’s Center for International Studies(CIS)(2016-17), and UN Secretary General’s Advisory Group Member of Peacebuilding Fund(PBF)(2014-17). She received her Ph.D from University of Maryland at College Park(1994) and received Nakasone Yasuhiro Award of Excellence(2008). Her numerous publications cover UN Peace operations, human security, and East Asian multilateral security architecture.

Min, Byoung Won had taught governance of information technology at the Graduate School of Information Technology, Seoul National University of Technology. He is now teaching international relations theories and international security at Ewha Womans University. His research interests are in East Asian theories of international relations, politics of information technology and cyber space, and international security and culture.

Moon, Chungshik is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science and International Relations at Chung-Ang University. His areas of research include the causes and effects of economic globalization and development, institutional performances in autocracies, and crisis bargaining process.

Park, Heung-Soon is a vice-president of the United Nations Association of ROK, a professor emeritus and former dean of the Graduate School, SunMoon University. As a scholar in international relations, Dr. Park has been active in the education, research and policy developments on the United Nations, international organizations, and multilateralism in particular. Professor Park has published several books and numerous articles in the related field of the United Nations, Korean foreign policy, and peace and security on the Korean Peninsula, including “East Asia and the Role of the UN” (2018), “Multinational Approaches to the Korean Impasse” (2016), “ UN, Multilateral Diplomacy, and Korean Foreign Policy (book, 2015). Prof. Park served as the president or chair of several organizations in Korea, including the KACUNS, the UNESCO- Korean Commission, and the Korean Foundation, as well as. He a policy advisor to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Since July 2018 He serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Academic Council on the United Nations System (ACUNS). Dr. Park is a founding and active member of the East Asian UN networks among China, Japan and Korea since 2000, such as the UN Seminar (scholars and researchers), the Presidents’ Forum of the UN Associations (UNAs), and the Youth Forum (college students). He also has a wide experience of interacting with many universities in Asia as the former secretary-general of the Asia University Federation, as well as as the Dean of the International Cooperation and Exchange, SMU. Dr. Park studied at Fairleigh Dickinson University, Columbia University and obtained Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina.

Park, In-kook is the President of Chey Institute for Advanced Studies and Korea Foundation for Advanced Studies. He previously served as Ambassador and Permanent Representative of the Republic of Korea to the United Nations (2008-2011), Deputy Foreign Minister for Policy Planning and International Organizations (2006). He also took on other ambassadorial roles as President or Chair of international organizations such as President of the Geneva Conference on Disarmament, Chairman of the 2nd Committee of the UN General Assembly.

Soh, Changrok is Professor of Korea University Graduate School of International Studies and the Director of Human Rights Center. He is a member of the Advisory Committee of UN Human Rights Council (UN HRC) and is the President of Human Asia, which is a UN DPI accredited Human Rights NGO. He also serves as the President of Korea Academic Council on the United Nations System (KACUNS), a Vice President of Korean Association of Human Rights Studies and the Director of SSK (Social Science Korea) Human Rights Forum, an inter-university research group on human rights funded by the National Research Foundation of Korea. He has a special interest in the field of human rights and human security, especially in East Asia, where he has published many notable articles including “Multilateral Cooperation to Advocate Human Security in East Asia,” “Extending Corporate Liability of Human Rights Violations in Asia,” “Regional Governance of North Korean Human Rights,” and “Cosmopolitan Memories in East Asia: Revisiting and Reinventing the Second World War.” Professor Soh has integrated his academic research into human rights policy through his role in the advisory committee of UN HRC, where he provides expertise to the Council. In order to protect and promote human rights in the Asian region, he has led human rights advocacy campaigns and community development projects in many Asian countries such as Nepal and India. After graduating from the Department of International Relations at Seoul National University, he received his Ph.D. as well as MALD from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University in the US.

FUJII, Hiroshige (藤井広重)

Hiroshige Fujii, LL.M (International Human Rights Law), Adv. LL.M (International Criminal Law), Ph.D. Candidate, is the Committee member for Academic Exchange and Cooperation, Japan Association for United Nations Studies (JAUNS) (2019-). He is an Assistant Professor in Graduate School of Regional Development and Creativity and School of International Studies at Utsunomiya University where he specializes in International Criminal Law and Peacebuilding in Africa. As a member of UNU Global Leadership Training Program, Fujii was a visiting fellow at the University of Cape Town in 2016. He has professional experiences in the Philippines, Ghana and the Netherlands, as well as he had been engaged in UN Peacekeeping Operations as a Program Advisor in Japan’s Cabinet Office. The Japanese Government dispatched Fujii to Mali Peacebuilding Center as an expert of International Criminal Justice in July 2015.

HADANO, Takamitsu (秦野貴光)

Takamitsu Hadano is a Junior Researcher in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences at the University of Tsukuba, Japan. He received a Doctor of Philosophy in Government and International Affairs from the University of Durham, United Kingdom in 2019. Prior to that, he completed a Master of International Public Policy and a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations at the University of Tsukuba, Japan.

His research interests cover a broad spectrum of topics in the field of International Relations, including International Relations theory (esp. the English School of International Relations), power transition, pacific settlement of international disputes, peaceful change, inter-organisational relations in international society, UN Security Council reform, multilateralism, peacekeeping, Russia’s regional security policy, and international relations in the Asia-Pacific.

His current research revolves around three topics. His first line of research concerns the historical origins and development of the international principle of peaceful change and examines its relevance for contemporary international society characterised by global power transition. His second line of research critically engages with Julia C. Morse’s and Robert O. Keohane’s concept of ‘contested multilateralism’ and addresses the impact of interactions between multilateral institutions on the norms, principles and practices in international society. Third, and more recently, he has been looking into Russia’s regional security policy and its approaches to multilateralism and multilateral institutions, with a focus on its strategic use of multilateral institutions such as the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS), the Collective Security Treaty Organisation (CSTO) and the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO). He is also looking to conduct research regarding the impact of interactions among international and regional organisations on the effectiveness and impartiality of peacekeeping operations.

His recent publications include “‘Action for Peacekeeping (A4P)’, Political Will and Reform of the UN Security Council’, Tsukuba Journal of Law and Politics, vol. 78, 2019, ‘Collective Security, Peaceful Change and UN Security Council Reform: Reframing the Debate’, Journal of International Organizations Studies, vol. 9/2, 2018, ‘Lord Robert Cecil’s Views on International Peace Organisations: State Sovereignty, Public Opinion and Peaceful Change’, Kokusai-Seiji (International Relations), vol. 193, 2018 (in Japanese), and ‘Peaceful Change and International Society: The English School in History’, Kokusai-Seiji (International Relations), vol. 176, 2014 (in Japanese). He has presented papers at national and international conferences, including the Pan-European Conference on International Relations organised by the European International Studies Associations (EISA) and the Annual Convention of the Japanese Association of International Relations (JAIR).

HASEGAWA, Sukehiro (長谷川祐弘)

President of the Global Peacebuilding Association of Japan; Director for Academic Exchange of the United Nations Association of Japan; Director of the Tokyo Office of the Academic Council on the UN System (ACUNS); Chair of the Hiroshima Peacebuilders Center Council, Chair of Japan Council for Global Governance, Advisory Body for the members of the Diet of Japan.

Professor Sukehiro Hasegawa was the Special Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations for Timor-Leste from May 2004 to September 2006 and Head of the United Nations Mission of Support in East Timor (UNMISSET), the United Nations Office in Timor-Leste (UNOTIL), and the United Nations Mission in Timor-Leste (UNMIT).

Professor Hasegawa served with the United Nations from 1969 to 2006 and held several senior positions. They include the Resident and Humanitarian Coordinator of the UN System in the South Pacific, Rwanda and Timor-Leste, Deputy Executive Coordinator of the UN Volunteers, and Deputy Assistant Administrator of UNDP for Asia and the Pacific.

Dr. Hasegawa was Professor of Global Politics, Faculty of Law, Hosei University, from 2007-2013. He was Visiting Professor of Toyo University from 2007- 2009 and the United Nations University in Tokyo from 2007-2013. Professor Hasegawa obtained a Ph.D. from Washington University, USA, in 1974.

INOMATA, Tadanori (猪又忠徳)

Tadanori Inomata is Advisor for Global Relations and Visiting Professor at the Nagasaki University, and Lecturer at the UN-IAS, Tokyo.

He is an executive board member designate of the JAUNS for 2019-2022 and a member of the Board of Directors of the Global Peacebuilding Association of Japan.

He taught as full professor trans-national relations at the Graduate School of International Cooperation studies of Kobe University as well as Course Director of UNU-Institute for the Advanced Study of Sustainability for the UN System and Sustainable Development Course.

During his public service, he served as Ambassador of Japan in Costa Rica (2002-2004) as well as Inspector of Joint Inspection Unit of the UN system (2005-2014) and member of the UN ACABQ, and chaired the UN Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice and the Executive Committee of the Multilateral Fund for the ozone regime. He served as staff for IEA/OECD and UNCTAD.

He published numerous analyses of system-wide resource planning and management of UN humanitarian assistance and disaster risk reduction, peace operations and environmental governance (see for detail Annexes I & II below). The recent publication includes Nagasaki University's contribution to UNISDR GAR 19 on community recovery and reconstruction from Fukushima nuclear and radiological disasters (2019).

KARUBE, Keiko (軽部恵子)

Keiko Karube is professor of international law at the Faculty of Law of Momoyama Gakuin University, also known as St. Andrew's University, in Osaka, Japan. Her main research interests lie in international human rights law, especially the UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (the CEDAW Convention). For a number of occasions, she presented papers and presided workshops at academic conferences of the Japan Association for United Nations Studies, Japan Association of Gender and Law, and the International Human Rights Law Association of Japan. In June 2018, she presented a paper on Anne of Green Gables (1908) at Lucy Maude Montgomery Institute in Prince Edward Island, Canada. This paper examines the reasons for the enduring popularity of the work in Japan from a perspective of Japanese women's social status and gender inequality, such as in education, family relations, and employment.

KATSUMA, Yasushi (勝間 靖)

At Waseda University, Dr. Yasushi KATSUMA is Professor of International Studies Program in the Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies (GSAPS), while serving as a member of the University's Board of Trustees. At the National Center for Global Health & Medicine (NCGM), he is Director of Global Health Affairs & Governance in the Institute for Global Health Policy Research (iGHP).

Currently, he serves the BMJ as an International Advisory Board member; the Japan Society for International Development (JASID) as a Director; the Japan Association for International Health (JAIH) as a Councilor; the Japanese Organization for International Cooperation in Family Planning (JOICFP) as a Board member; and the GLM Institute as a Board member. Previously, he served the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) as an Advisory Panel member of its Human Development Report; the World Health Organization Regional Office for the Western Pacific (WHO-WPRO) as an Advisor; the JASID as a Vice-President; and the Japan Association for United Nations Studies (JAUNS) as the Secretary-General and a Director. Prior to the current positions, he worked for the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) in Mexico, Pakistan, Afghanistan and Tokyo. He received his Ph.D. (Development) from the University of Wisconsin-Madison; LL.M. & LL.B. from Osaka University; and B.A. from International Christian University, after working as a volunteer for a British project in Honduras and studying at the University of California-San Diego.

His areas of expertise are global health affairs and governance, human security, human development and child rights. His recent publications include the following: Leave No One Behind: Time for Specifics on the Sustainable Development Goals (Brookings Institution Press, 2019; co-authored); "Next steps towards universal health coverage call for global leadership," BMJ (2019; 365: I2107; co-authored); "Challenges in achieving the Sustainable Development Goal on good health and well-being: Global health governance as an issue for the means of implementation," Asia-Pacific Development Journal (Vol.23, No.2, 2016; co-authored).

KIHARA-HUNT, Ai (キハラハント愛)

Dr. Ai Kihara-Hunt is Associate Professor at the Graduate Program on Human Security and Deputy Director of the Research Center for Sustainable Peace, at the University of Tokyo. She also serves as a member of the Board of Directors at the Academic Council on the United Nations System (ACUNS). Her main area of research is UN Peace Operations, in particular the UN Police, accountability and human rights. She teaches international human rights law, international humanitarian law, international criminal law, human security and peacebuilding. Between 1998 and 2016, she worked in Nepal, East Timor/ Timor-Leste, Sri Lanka, Indonesia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and Japan with the UN Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (UN-OHCHR), UN Peace Operations (UNTAET, UNAMET) and other UN offices and entities, as well as in the academia. Her publications include: Holding UNPOL to Account: Individual Criminal Accountability of United Nations Police Personnel (Brill, 2017).

KUKITA, Jun (久木田純)

Jun Kukita is a Professor at Kwansei Gakuin University in Japan. He served in UNICEF between 1986 and 2015, recently as Representative for Kazakhstan as well as for East Timor, and in the past as Senior Adviser in New York Headquarters, Deputy Representative for Bangladesh, Deputy Head of Tokyo Office, Programme Officer in Namibia, and acting head of office in Maldives. He studied communication and linguistics at Seinan Gakuin University, sociology and ethnic relations at the National University of Singapore, and education and psychology at the Graduate School of Kyushu University, where he obtained a Master's degree and further studied for his doctorate. He was decorated with "Ordem de Timor-

Leste Insignia" from President Ramos-Horta in 2011 for his contribution to peace and development of East Timor. He was awarded the World Bank "President's Award for Financial Innovation" in 2003 for forging a broad partnership for Global Polio Eradication Programme.

KULNAZAROVA, Aigul (クルナザロバ・アイグル)

Dr. Aigul Kulnazarova is a Professor of International Relations and International Law at the School of Global Studies, Tama University, Japan. She is also a Visiting Professor at RUDN University in Moscow, Russia. She was previously an Invited Research Fellow of the Japan Foundation at the Nagoya University Graduate School of Law, Japan, and Dean of the Law School at Kazakh-American University, Kazakhstan, among other duties. Her main research interests are related to peace and security studies, international organizations with a primary focus on the UN system, and international relations theories. She is currently working on two book projects related to non-Western international relations and global security issues. Her latest publication is entitled The Palgrave Handbook of Global Approaches to Peace (Palgrave Macmillan, New York, 2019). Prior to joining the Japan Association for United Nations Studies, she has been for a long time a member of the Academic Council on the United Nations Studies and the International Studies Association (ISA), in which she has been co-chair of the ISA-Global South Dialogue in 2015-2018, and member of the Executive Committee for the Global South Caucus in 2015-2017, the Presidential Task Force on the Global South in 2016-2018 and the ISA Research Workshop Grant Committee in 2017-present, etc.

KUSHIMA, Shinichi (九島伸一)

Shinichi Kushima had worked in the United Nations (UN) for 30 years, from 1982 to 2012, for the Department of Public Information (DPI), the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) and the Economic Commission for Europe (ECE), as well in some specialized agencies including the World Health Organization (WHO), in the fields of data, information, knowledge and information technology. After his retirement from the UN, he has published several books including "Information" (情報, Tokyo: Gentosha, 2015) and "Knowledge" (知識, Tokyo: Shisuisha, 2017). He has a Master's Degree in Computing and Information Sciences from Case Western Reserve University and a Bachelor's Degree in Physics from Waseda University.

SHINYO, Takahiro (神余隆博)

President of Japan Association for United Nations Studies
Dean, Integrated Center for UN and Foreign Affairs Studies at Kwansei Gakuin University

Born in Kagawa Pref., Shikoku, Dr. Shinyo studied law at Osaka University and passed Higher Diplomatic Service Examination for Govt. of Japan. He joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs immediately after his graduation in 1972 and had served for 40 years as diplomat. After serving as Director-General, Multilateral Cooperation Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs he was appointed as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Permanent Mission of Japan to the United Nations and finally Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Japan to the Federal Republic of Germany. He retired from the Ministry in 2012 and assumed the post of Vice-President International of Kwansei Gakuin University (2012-2018).

Dr. Shinyo is the author of many books on UN and Foreign Policy in Japanese language.

One of his books was translated in German and published under the title "Japans aussenpolitische Strategie in einer multipolaren Welt", IUDICIUM Verlag, 2015

He speaks Japanese, English, German, Chinese(basic).

SHOJI, Mariko (庄司 真理子)

Mariko Shoji is the Director for Academic Exchange and Cooperation, Japan Association for United Nations Studies (JAUNS) (2019-). She is a professor in the Faculty of School of International Studies at Keiai University where she specializes in international organization, law and politics. She is an executive board member of the Japan Association of Global Governance from 2011. She was an executive board member of the JAUNS from 2004-2010 & 2016-present. She was a chief editor of the JAUNS from 2009-2010. She presided a workshop with the United Nations Global Compact Office as the title of "United Nations Global Compact Business and Peace Workshop: Business' contribution to Peace and Development through Multi-stakeholder Collaboration" in 2010. Since 2011, she has been serving as a member of the expert meeting of "Business for Peace" of the UN Global Compact.

TAKAHASHI, Kazuo (高橋一生)

Dr. Kazuo TAKAHASHI is the current Director for Academic Exchange and Cooperation of the JAUNS (till September 30, 2019).

BA & MA, International Christian University (ICU)

PhD in Political Science, Columbia University

Having served at the Development Cooperation Directorate and the Secretary General's Office of the OECD, Dr. TAKAHASHI had been appointed as the first Director of the Sasakawa Peace Foundation and the first Director of the Institute of Development Studies of FASID, before assuming professorship at ICU. His major interests have been international public goods and global public goods and his current concern is focused on the emergence of the second generation of the global civilization.

TAMAI, Masataka (玉井雅隆)

Masataka TAMAI is associate professor in the Tohoku University of Community Service and Science (Tohoku Koeki University) where he specializes in international relations and multiculturalism. His research topics are about European Security and Minority Rights, especially the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE). He is an executive board member of the Japan Association of Global Governance from 2016.

Ms. HUA Ruoyun is a researcher at Center for International Knowledge on Development (CIKD), China. Prior to CIKD, she was a visiting research fellow at Harvard University. She holds Ph.D. in management at Tsinghua University, M.A. in China development studies from the University of Hong Kong, and B.A. in Hebrew Literature and Economics from Peking University.

Ms. LI Dongyan, she is a senior fellow in International Politics at the Institute of World Economics and Politics(IWEP), Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS). She received her BA degree from Peking University and her MA degree from China University of Political Science and Law. Her research interests include international security, the United Nations and global governance. She is working on UN peace operations and China’s participation in international security cooperation. Her published works include: “The Evolution of the Concept of Security of the UN” (2004), “China’s Approaches and Future Prospects for Participation in United Nation Peacekeeping and Peacebuilding” (2012), “Global Security Governance and China’s Choice”(2013), “From the Protection of Civilians to Security Governance: Strengthening Cooperation between the United Nations and Host Governments and Civil Society Organizations”(2014) , “China’s International Peacekeeping Operations: Concepts and Approaches”(2018).

Ms. SONG Yi, She got her Ph.D. in Communication Studies from The University of Kansas, USA. She is Associate Dean of School of International Journalism and Communication of Beijing Foreign Studies University. She has been engaged in teaching and research activities with a focus on intercultural / intergroup communication and multi-media international journalism education and communication. She taught such courses as “English Public Speaking”, “Multimedia International News Production and Dissemination”, “Media Theory and Practice”, “Social Scientific Research Methods and Data Analysis”, “Communication Theory”, “Intercultural Communication Theory”, “Interpersonal Communication Theory” and “Academic Writing”. She has received many rewards for teaching and research excellency, including “Outstanding Beijing Collegiate Social Service Practitioner”, “Outstanding Advisor of National College English Speech Contest”, “Best Paper Award” at two annual conventions of the American Association of Communication Studies, “Chen Meijie Teaching Award”, “Excellent Teaching Award”, “Excellent Scientific Research Awards”, “Excellent Thesis Advisor”, and “Casio Teaching Award” from Beijing Foreign Studies University.

Ms. SUN Jingying, Doctor in Economics, researcher at Institute of World Economics and Politics, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (IWEP, CASS). Post-doctor in School of International Studies, Peking University from 2010 to 2015. She joined IWEP in 2016. Visiting scholar to University of Kansas and George Mason in 2009 supported by China Scholarship Council. Member of BRICS Think Tank. Member of United Nations Association of China. She has been dedicated in international development area and published several academic papers in World Economics and Politics and etc. She has published two books in SDGs area, Strengthen the Means of Implementation and Revitalize the Global Partnership for Sustainable Development (China Social Sciences Publishing House, in 2017), and China Plan for Global Development (China Intercontinental Press in 2019).

Ms. TENG Chen

2005-2008 Attache, Department of North American and Oceanian Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China
2008-2013 Third Secretary/Second Secretary, Permanent Mission of China to the United Nations
2013-2018 Second Secretary/First Secretary, Department of North American and Oceanian Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China
2018-present, Senior Officer, United Nations Association of China

Ms. WANG Ying has long served in Department of International Organization and Conferences, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China. She used to work in Permanent Mission of China to United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO), Embassy of China to Uganda, Permanent Mission of China to the United Nations Office at Geneva and other International Organizations in Switzerland, Office of the Commissioner of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. Since 2018, she has assumed the post of Deputy Director-General of United Nations Association of China.

Dr. XUE Lei(薛磊) is a research fellow of the Center for Maritime and Polar Studies, Shanghai Institutes for International Studies. He got a Ph.D. degree for international law at the East China University of Political Science and Law in 2010. His main research fields include peacekeeping, peacebuilding, and UN Security Council. He was a visiting scholar of German Institute for International and Security Affairs (SWP) in 2011 and the Quaker United Nations Office (QUNO) in 2013. His recent articles include “China as a permanent member of the UN Security Council”, “The global network for preventive diplomacy and China’s persuasive diplomacy”, “China’s development-oriented peacekeeping strategy in Africa”, etc.

Ms. ZHANG Weiwei is a research fellow with China Institute of International Studies. She has focused her research on Northeast Asia studies and Chinese public diplomacy. She has published widely on China-Japan relations, U.S.-Japan alliance, Japanese foreign policy, China-Japan-Korea cooperation and etc. She was an author of the Blue Books on International Situation and China’s Foreign Policy for eight consecutive years, taking charge of the public diplomacy chapters of the books. She has also authored a number of reports to the government on a range of topics.

ACUNS Delegation

Roger A. Coate is the Paul D. Coverdell Professor of Public Policy at Georgia College and Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Political Science at the University of South Carolina. He is Chair-elect of ACUNS and has served as Vice Chair, member of the Executive Committee, and Chair of the Committee on Governance of ACUNS. Coate served as senior staff consultant to the U.S. Secretary of State’s Monitoring Panel on UNESCO in 1984–1985; member of the U.S. Delegation to the 31st UNESCO General Conference; member of the U.S. National Academy of Sciences Board of International Scientific Organizations, 2001–2006; member of the UN Habitat II Secretary-General’s Advisory Panel on Housing Rights, 1996; and United Nations Fellow in the Centre for Human Rights, 1990. Coate’s research and teaching interests focus on public policy related to multilateral relations, international organization, and global governance. His specific areas of expertise and research interests include: leadership and the role of the United States in the UN system, UN and international organization reform, international administration, the role of civil society in global governance, nonprofit management, and U.S. multilateral foreign policy. He is author or co-author of more than a dozen books and monographs, including: The United Nations and Changing World Politics [Eight editions]; Identity Politics in an Age of Globalization; United Nations Politics: Responding to a Challenging World; International Cooperation in Response to AIDS; United States Policy and the Future of the United Nations; and Unilateralism, Ideology and United States Foreign Policy: The U.S. In and Out of UNESCO.

Korea Academic Council on the United Nations System (KACUNS)